MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Grandparents are very special people. As the matriarch and patriarch of the family, they play a vital role in a child's life by imparting wisdom and unconditional love. They teach the family's history, culture, and morals. Also, no one hugs better than a grandparent!

On "Grandparents Day" this month, we celebrate the wonderful grandparents residing in our community and commend you for all the knowledge and joy you've given to your grandchildren.

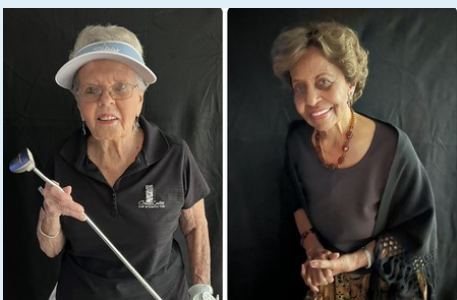

As a leader in Senior Living, CountrySide Lakes has had a long-standing presence in the civic community. We encounter ordinary citizens throughout the county who do extraordinary things for the greater good and welfare of others. Accordingly, we will be recognizing these individuals by presenting them with the CountrySide Lakes "Salus Award" for exemplary achievements in community welfare and public service.

Congratulations to James Marcum, who recently was the inaugural recipient of the award.

GORGEOUS GRANDMA DAY FASHION SHOW

What an amazing display of beauty and grace on "National Gorgeous Grandma Day." The show featured MARIE HELLAND in an elegant little black dress with turquoise accessories. LORRAINE SHELDON strutted her stuff in a fabulous chapeau to the song "You Must Have Been A Beautiful Baby." JANET THOMAS was the quintessential "Southern Belle" aka Scarlett O'Hara. DOT RUSSELL was dazzling in red with a tiara and her signature sequined "Wizard of Oz" ruby red shoes. Exquisite from head to toe in black and blue with a matching cape was GINI DRAUGHON. A leg cast didn't stop JANET VACCHIANO from walking down the runway in a beautiful blue ensemble escorted by her son-in-law. JOAN DAIGNEAULT wore a chic country club golf outfit and even putted "a hole in one" right on the runway. MARLENE GREENE was stylishly sophisticated with beautiful amber accessories. Looking as regal as Catherine The Great herself in a cream gown and emerald tiara, CATHERINE RITCHEY closed the show with a fake Groucho Marx nose and mustache for a fun finale. The show's biggest surprise was the anti-fashion statement by LYNN MOLNER who dressed as a bag lady with rollers in her hair, cheap jewelry, and not so discreet "Depends" over her clothing, hilariously prancing on the runway to the altered Marilyn Monroe song "Diapers are a Girl's Best Friend"

KATHY McMINN, FLORENCE MIKA, STEWART and MARSHA SPAR have a combined total of 40 grands!

How do your grandchildren affectionately refer to you?

JEAN DOLEN is "Bubbe," GILBERT ABREU is "Popi," GEORGE PHILLIPS is "Papou," and LEFKI DEMOPOULOS is "YiaYia."

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

VIVIAN ROBERTS is a delightfully cheerful member of the housekeeping team who has led a fascinating life that started in Southern Illinois designing and making clothing.

She's been a commissioned artist, wedding photographer, radio DJ, and gospel singer. Prior to joining CSL, Vivian worked for NASCAR where she took pictures on the Daytona Speedway.

Vivian has traveled the world. She loves Sweden and especially Australia where she mastered the art of throwing a boomerang.

The mother of two sons, two grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren, Vivian lives in South Daytona.

Her sons have urged her to write a book about her life which is full of interesting things like a unique home she designed and built ... the only octagon shaped house in Port Orange!

Congratulations, Vivian.
